

Egnyte Chosen as AlwaysOn OnDemand 100 Winner

Company recognized for creating game-changing technology in on-demand software, cloud computing and SaaS

Mountain View, Calif., May 14, 2014 – Egnyte, the provider of the industry's most comprehensive enterprise file-sharing platform, today announced the company has been named to the AlwaysOn OnDemand Top 100 list. This list features companies with game-changing approaches and technologies that are disrupting entrenched markets and excel in the following categories: innovation, market potential, commercialization, stakeholder value and media buzz.

“This year, the top cloud infrastructure, SaaS, and on-demand software players are making serious inroads into the enterprise and business community. Cloud storage wars and excellent software offerings are making the cloud an even more attractive place to do business. Both business and consumer users are migrating to the cloud in droves, bringing us into a new digital age filled with opportunity,” says Tony Perkins, founder and editor of AlwaysOn. “This year’s OnDemand 100 winners list is jam packed with companies that are using the cloud to create and host imaginative, versatile apps. Mobile, business, consumer—the on-demand universe is propelling the entire global Silicon Valley into an interdependent, connected, and mobile future.”

Egnyte provides an enterprise platform that enables companies to share 100 percent of their files when, where and how they choose. The platform combines the speed and security of local storage with the accessibility of the cloud, increasing productivity of workforces by limiting downtime to access and share business data. Egnyte has been named one of the top technology innovators and game changers that is bringing the next generation of technology to the enterprise.

“We’re thrilled to be recognized by AlwaysOn as one of the industry’s Top 100 innovators and game changers,” said Vineet Jain, CEO and co-founder at Egnyte. “This award recognizes that we’ve created a unique and truly innovative solution that provides bottom-line value to our customers by helping them get easy, reliable and secure access to 100% of their files, while leveraging their existing storage investments.”

Egnyte and the OnDemand Top 100 companies will be honored at AlwaysOn's OnDemand event on June 4, 2014, at Draper University in San Mateo, CA. This exclusive event features a high-level debate and discourse on leading trends and opportunities in the SaaS, cloud, on-demand, and mobile enterprise sectors. Egnyte's Co-Founder and VP of Products Rajesh Ram will also be speaking on an industry panel at the event on June 4.
